Persons connected with insignificant subsidiaries
1.	14A.09	20.08	Listco has acquired certain fixed assets from Company A (being a substantial shareholder of a subsidiary of Listco), which constitutes a connected transaction subject to the announcement and reporting requirements. Will Listco need to report the above acquisition in its next annual report if Company A becomes qualified for the insignificant subsidiary exemption based on Listco's results at the end of the year?	Yes. Listco is required to comply with the connected transaction requirements applicable at the time of entering into the transaction.
2.	14A.09, 14A.60, 14A.101	20.08, 20.58, 20.99	Listco has entered into a framework agreement with Company A (being a substantial shareholder of a subsidiary of Listco) for purchasing certain raw materials at prices to be determined from time to time. It is not a connected transaction as Company A qualifies for the insignificant subsidiary exemption.	If Listco continues to conduct the transactions under the framework agreement, it needs to comply with the announcement, reporting and annual review requirements, unless the transactions are fully exempt under the de minimis exemption.

3.	14A.12(1)(b)	20.10(1)(b)	Will an employees' share scheme or occupational pension scheme be regarded as being established for a wide scope of participants based on the fact that the interests of connected persons in the scheme are together less than 30%?	No. The scheme must satisfy both conditions to qualify for the trustee exemption. Whether or not a scheme is established for a wide scope of participants would depend on the circumstances of the individual cases.
4.	14A.12(1)(b)	20.10(1)(b)	When determining the connected persons' aggregate interests in an employees' share scheme or occupational pension scheme, does the issuer have to take into account the interests of any employees who are relatives of the issuer's directors or substantial shareholder?	It will depend on whether the relatives are deemed to be associates of the directors/substantial shareholder in the proposed transaction with the trustee of the scheme. The issuer should provide information for the Exchange to assess whether or not to apply the deeming provision, and judgement needs to be exercised in considering whether these persons stand to benefit from the transaction.

Since the interests of Listco’s directors in the scheme are together less than 30%, Trustee A is not an “associate” of the directors under Rule 14A.12(1)(b) and therefore not a connected person of Listco. (a) Is Trustee A a “close associate” of the directors under Rule 1.01? (b) Will the shares held by Company A on behalf of the beneficiaries of the scheme be regarded as being “in public hands”? (c) Trustee A, acting as the trustee of the scheme, holds more than 10% of Listco’s total issued shares. The exclusion for the definition of “associate” under Rule 14A.12(1)(b) does not apply to the definition of “close associate” under Rule 1.01. (b) No, because Trustee A is a close associate of Listco’s directors and therefore a core connected person for the purpose of Rule 8.24. (c) No. Trustee A does not fall under the definition of “substantial shareholder” under rule 1.01. (Added in July 2014)
