Definition

- 29.03 A listing document is defined in rule 1.01 as a prospectus, a circular and any equivalent document (including the composite document in relation to a scheme of arrangement and/or an introduction document) issued or proposed to be issued in connection with an application for listing. Issuers are recommended to consult the Exchange at the earliest opportunity if they are in any doubt as to whether a particular document constitutes a listing document as so defined.

Disclaimer

- 29.04 Any listing document must contain on its front cover a prominent and legible disclaimer statement in the form set out in rule 2.19.

GEM characteristics

29.05 Any listing document, must contain, at a prominent position in the document, and in bold type, a statement concerning the characteristics of GEM, in the form set out in rule 2.20.

When required

29.06 The methods of listing debt securities required by the GEM Listing Rules to be supported by a listing document are:—

- (1) offers for subscription;
- (2) offers for sale;
- (3) placings; and
- (4) exchanges or substitutions of securities.

29.07 Other methods of listing debt securities are not required by the GEM Listing Rules to be supported by a listing document, but if a listing document is otherwise required or issued, it must comply with the relevant requirements of this Chapter.

Contents

29.08 The listing document is required to include the following:—

- (1) the statements required pursuant to rule 29.04 (disclaimer) and rule 29.05 (GEM characteristics);
- (2) subject to rule 29.09, all of the specific items of information which are set out in Part C of Appendix 1;
- (3) appropriate risk factors, taking into consideration the matters set out in rule 29.12; and
- (4) in respect of a listing document issued in support of an application for listing of debt securities of a class new to listing where those debt securities are offered otherwise than to existing shareholders, the listing document must, as an overriding principle, contain such particulars and information which, according to the particular nature of the issuer and guarantor, in the case of a guaranteed issue, and the debt securities for which listing is sought, is necessary to enable an investor to make an informed assessment of:—
 - (a) the activities, profits and losses, assets and liabilities, financial position, management and prospects of the issuer and guarantor, in the case of a guaranteed issue; and
 - (b) the rights and trading arrangements attaching to such debt securities.

29.09 A bank may omit the items of information required by the following paragraphs of Part C of Appendix 1:—

34, 37(2) to (7), 38, 40, 41(2), (3) and (4), 44 and 51

In addition, the Exchange may be prepared to permit the omission of information where it considers it appropriate. Banks who want to omit any of the prescribed information should therefore consult the Exchange at the earliest possible opportunity.

29.10 Negative statements are required only where so indicated in Part C of Appendix 1.

29.11 The Exchange may require disclosure of such additional or alternative items of information as it considers appropriate in any particular case. Conversely, it may be prepared to permit the omission or modification of items of information to suit the circumstances of a particular case. Consequently, issuers are encouraged, through their Sponsors where so retained, to seek informal and confidential guidance from the Exchange at the earliest opportunity. The issuer shall not publish the listing document until the Exchange has confirmed that it has no further comments thereon.

Risk factors

29.12 The listing document should fully set out, explain and give appropriate prominence to any risk factors which should be drawn to prospective investors' attention, having regard, as a minimum, to the following principles:—

- (1) whether or not there are risks that are relevant to the issuer itself, including as to matters such as reliance on particular products or services, the concentration of expertise within the issuer, continued sources of funding;
- (2) whether or not there are risks that are relevant to the issuer's business, including risks attendant with the products, services or activities themselves and risks relevant to the industry or sectors in which the issuer operates; and
- (3) whether or not there are risks on a macro-scale that are relevant to the issuer, including geographic, economic, political and exchange rates, currency controls or other financial risks relevant to the issuer or the markets in which it operates.

Note: Risk factors should be capable of being read in isolation and should not be accompanied by statements or qualifications concerning steps that the issuer proposes to implement in order to alleviate such risks. Information in this regard may however be contained elsewhere in the listing document.

Responsibility

29.13 Directors of the issuer and of the guarantor, in the case of a guaranteed issue, are required, collectively and individually, to accept full responsibility for the document and a statement (in the form set out in rule 2.18) to this effect must be included in the listing document (adapted, if applicable, to include the directors of the guarantor).

Subsequent events

29.14 The Exchange must be notified immediately if, before the commencement of dealings in any debt securities, the issuer becomes aware that:—

- (1) there has been a significant change affecting any matter contained in the listing document; or
- (2) a significant new matter has arisen, the inclusion of information in respect of which would have been required to be in the listing document if it had arisen before the listing document was issued.

For this purpose "significant" means significant for the purpose of making an informed assessment of the matters mentioned in rule 29.08(4). The Exchange will consider in each case what action should be taken and whether any publication of the change or new matter is required. In such circumstances, the Exchange may, at its absolute discretion, withdraw any listing approval granted or impose any conditions which it considers appropriate.

Language and format

- 29.15 Every listing document must be in the English language and be accompanied by a Chinese translation or be in the Chinese language and be accompanied by an English translation.
